Dogra Degree College organizes Rangoli Competition on the eve of Diwali

DH CORRESPONDENT
BARI BRAHMANA NOV 5

On the 05th of November, the eve of the Diwali festival, a Rangoli competition was organized in Dogra Degree College. Speaking on the occasion the Secretary Dogra Educational Trust encouraged and appreciated the students for showcasing their aesthetic abilities. He further added that Rangoli is an art form in India in which patterns are created on the floor in living rooms or courtyards using materials such as coloured rice, dry flour, and coloured sand or flower petals. It is usually made during Diwali (Deepawali), Onam, Pongal and other Indian festivals. Designs are passed from one generation to the next, keeping both the art form and the tradition alive. The purpose of Rangoli is decoration, and it is thought to bring good luck. He appreciated the Principal & staff for motivating the students for the competition.

The BBA/B.A/B.Com students of Dogra Degree College made Rangoli patterns. The best three were awarded prizes. 09 teams in total participated in the competition and 3 teams were awarded prizes for their designs. The names of the members of the nine teams are as follows;

Team 1- BBA 1ST Sem were Aksha Showket, Priya, Nirjot Kaur & Bhumiika,
