Dogra Law College organises workshop on emotional well being and personality development

DH CORRESPONDENT
JAMMU, MAY 30

Dogra Law College organised a workshop on 'Emotional Well Being and Personality Development'. The workshop was conducted by Dr Pooja Sharma, Relationship Counsellor and Trainer. She is also a motivational speaker and part of social gender Ambassador New Delhi, India. The students of all the three Colleges participated in the workshop. The speaker was accorded a warm welcome by the students, staff and management of Dogra Educational Trust. Prof. V.P. Sharma, Principal, Dogra Law College, in his inaugural address welcomed Dr. Pooja Sharma and introduced the speaker to the students. He also gave his views on the emotional well being of individual and also encouraged the students to lead a happy and stress free life. Dr. Pooja Sharma in her presentation made the students familiar with the idea of being emotionally fit. She motivated the students to lead a healthy life physically as well as mentally so that they can take responsible citizens of our society. She explained that due to some traumatic events in our life or due to being alone or because of the stress of job or studies and to overcome this she suggested that we should try to introspect and vent out the negative thoughts which crop up in our mind. She also defined different kinds of personalities and told the students that they should be confident and should never consider themselves unworthy "as you decide what others will see in you". Later the concluding remarks were presented by Prof. S.K. Sharma, former State Information Commissioner and eminent Professor of Law. He said that we can learn a lot about emotional wellbeing from our scriptures and he talked about the concept of Manasa, Vacha and Karma.

Legal Aid Cell of Dogra Law College Organizes Legal Literacy Awareness Camp

The Legal Aid Cell of Dogra Law College in collaboration with District Legal Services Authority, Samba under the aegis of Village Sarpanch Chhannary Mohd. Salim organized a Legal Literacy Awareness Camp at Village Bari Brahmana, Bari Brahmana Samba, as part of National Legal Services Authority with an objective of promoting outdoor legal aid. The camp was held at 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM on 20/08/2022. The camp was held at 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM on 20/08/2022. The camp was held at 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM on 20/08/2022. The camp was held at 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM on 20/08/2022.

bridge the gap between the regulator and the exploited. The main objective of organizing this camp is to increase legal literacy among community members which would also help in identifying the society from the clutches of exploitation, creating an egalitarian and a just society. In this camp, the students of Dogra Law College spread awareness about the 74th and the 73rd Constitutional Amendment Acts, which required upon the States to establish a three-tier system of "panchayats at the village, intermediate and district levels and Municipalities in the urban areas, respectively. People were explained how this has constituted a new chapter in the process of democratic decentralization in India. Further, education was made of the fact that the responsibility for taking decisions regarding activities at the grass-root level which affect people's lives directly rests upon the elected members of the people themselves. Chhannary Mohd. Salim, Village Sarpanch, highlighted the fact that how Panchayats act as a first level of government institution and has been the subject of local government in India. He also stressed that Panchayats have been one of the best systems of Indian society. Young members of Dogra Law College also spread awareness among local population about the prevailing COVID-19 situation. He educated the villagers about COVID-19 protocols such as maintaining social distance, washing of hands, wearing mask properly and avoiding wood-burning. The villagers were also made part of an interactive session on COVID-19, which they came up with some questions/queries at the pandemic which were satisfactorily clarified by the faculty members. The camp was headed by Mr. Praveen Salim, Governor, Legal Aid Committee, Dogra Law College. It was supported by Mr. Chhannary Mohd. Salim, Village Sarpanch, Dogra Law College. Some students of first semester and fifth semester of LL.B. 3 year were involved in the awareness campaign.
