Alumini Meet At Dogra Law College on March 2018

Dogra Law College Organizes First Alumni Meet

JAMMU, MAR 19: Dogra Law College organized its First Alumni Meet in college Auditorium. Most of the Alumni were visiting their Alma Mater after a long time and instantly were thrilled to be back in the campus. The Meet began at 11:00 am with the lighting of traditional lamp by the dignitaries.
 Prof. V.P. Nagori, Principal, Dogra Law College extended a hearty welcome to the alumni and dignitaries. In welcome address the principal updated the alumni about new initiatives taken up by the college and informed that 15 batches of LL.B (Even) and 14 batches of B.A.L.L.B (Even) classes have passed since the college was established in 2000. The election of the Alumni Association was also held where Mr. Vinod Singh Joharwa was elected as President, Mr. Sachin Dev Singh, Advocate was elected as Vice president and Mr. Anil Kumar Joharwa was elected as secretary of the association. All the three office bearers were felicitated by the college. Memento was also presented to all the alumni by the management of the college.

 Sh. Nishank Singh, Director Administration and Cooper. Development, Dogra Educational Trust also addressed the alumni. Speaking on the occasion he appreciated the alumni for showing their loyalty to Dogra Law College. He also thanked the Alumni for supporting the college. He congratulated for having good count of alumni included old as well as recent batch alumni. He congratulated and blessed the alumni for their achievements and wished them all the best in their endeavours.

 Mr. Gurbh Singh Chauri, Secretary, Dogra Educational Trust in his address appreciated the Dogra Law College for success of the day's activities and further said that Alumni Meet is a great platform to meet your peers and teachers and revive the bonds. He impressed upon the alumni office bearers of the Alumni Association to extend their services to needy especially the poorer section of society by providing them the legal services as a part of their social responsibility.

 He expressed his happiness that most of the Alumni of Dogra Law College has been rendering their best services in different fields like Judiciary, Administration, as Prosecution Officer and standing counsels in State Govt. and as advocates, which is highly appreciable and has brought credit to Dogra Law College.
 Mr. Gurbh Singh Chauri also addressed the Alumni and appreciated the management of organizing Alumni Meet, which created a special bond between the students who had passed out and who have established themselves already in the outside world.

 Mrs. Bela Thakur, Principal, Dogra Degree College and Dr. Nishank Singh Chauri, Dogra College of Education were also present in the function. The event was gladdened by the presence of the students of the college. The meet was concluded with Vote of Thanks by Sh. Nishank Singh Chauri, Member of Faculty and Secretary of Alumni Association of Dogra Law College.

Plantation Drive Organized by NSS Unit of Dogra Law College

DH REPORT

BARU BRAHMANA, OCT 11

NSS unit of Dogra Law College organized a plantation drive by NSS volunteers and faculty members in the College Campus under the able guidance of Mr. Ramdik Bali, NSS programme Co-ordinator. Prof V.P Magotra, Principal, Dogra Law College motivated the students to take earnest steps towards making the environment a better place to live in and he also appreciated the efforts of volunteers to make this drive successful. He further said that it is not only the duty of a person but all of us to put efforts in order to make environment neat and clean. The drive involved planting of various aboriginal saplings of authentic value. It was rather an attempt to educate the volunteers to create and maintain pollution free environment by planting more trees. Thus, the drive concluded with a motivational spirit among the volunteers. The students of college enthusiastically participated in the plantation drive.

'Girl Up'- United Nations Foundation makes its presence at the Dogra Educational Trust

SAMBA, SEP 30

Dogra Educational Trust hosted a seminar with Ms. Aditi Arora, the country representative of Girl Up, an initiative of the United Nations Foundation. Ms. Arora has been working for the rights of girls and women in various parts of the country and in Geneva. She conducted a seminar with the girl students of Rich Harvest School, Dogra College of Education, Dogra Degree College and Dogra Law College which was aimed to sensitize them around issues of gender inequality and gender based violence and called them to act in support for the achieving gender parity in the society. It was an exhilarating and knowledgeable session where girls discussed the grave issues that plague our society today including child marriage, female infanticide and violence. The need for safe spaces, education and girls role in advocating for their rights were some of the topics which were discussed.

Girl Up is "by girls, for girls' and girl that girls have access to equal opportunities. Through their development projects, Girl Up empowers, connects, trains and connects girls globally, helping them as leaders and change makers. Illustrious personalities like Priyanka Chopra and Queen Rani of Jhansi have been associated with the Girl Up cause and with over 2,200 clubs across a 100 countries, Girl Up has global presence.

This initiative was taken for the first time in the state of J&K with the students of the Dogra Educational Trust and will be honored to become the next generation of change-makers. In the morning session the resource person had a session with the girl students of Rich harvest school and the second session was held with the students of Dogra group of colleges running under the flagship of Dogra educational trust. Secretary Trust Kunwar Samar Dev Singh lauded the efforts of Ms Aditi Arora and appreciated the Principals of the colleges and Rich Harvest school for supporting the cause of the girl child by facilitating the interaction of the UN Foundation representative with their girl students.
