Dogra Law College organizes an Extension Lecture on Consumer Protection Act, 2019

Topic - Consumer Protection Act, 2019: A Comparative Study with 1986 Act

AMBALA, JUNE 8
 Dogra Law College organized a EXTENSION LECTURE on Consumer Protection Act, 2019, focusing on its comparative analysis with the previous Consumer Protection Act, 1986. The Consumer Protection Act, 2019 and even the new legislation of 2019 was enacted to provide for protection of the interests of consumers and to establish authorities for speedy and efficient administration and settlement of consumers' disputes and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Adv. Anam Sawhney, J&H High Court was the resource person who enlightened the students about the consumer protection law and its allied matters. He stressed that law is ever static and is ever evolving. While discussing the ambit and scope of Consumer Protection Act, Adv. Sawhney explained the applicability of Consumer Protection Act, 2019 and its scope in the State of Jammu and Kashmir. To make the session more interactive, Adv. Sawhney sharing shared his personal experiences related to consumer matters.

He stressed that consumer law is a remedialary part of practice and how the setting up of consumer commissions have opened up avenues for lawyers. He dwinged upon the intricacies of Consumer Protection Act like maintainability of the complaint, tortious liability, enrichment, class action suits etc. He explained the setting up of Central Consumer Protection Authority under the new legislation and how the commission under Consumer Protection Act, 2019 has been given the powers of a Judicial Magistrate.

He enlightened the students about the territorial and pecuniary jurisdiction of the Act. While stressing upon the comparative analysis, he stated that the earlier Act was a half-breed regime and the same has been overcome by imposing civil as well as criminal liability under the new Act.

The event started with the lighting of the lamp by all the dignitaries and seeking the blessings of almighty. This was followed by handing over of shawls to Adv.

Anam Sawhney as a token of appreciation. Mrs. Sushila Bhatnagar, Director, Dogra Degree College gave the welcome address. The star of the show was given by Mr. Daya Khatwa, Lecturer, Dogra Degree College, Deraawal among those present were Ex-Senior Pw Singh Chahal, Secretary, Dogra Educational Trust, Dr. Darshana Sharma, Director, T&E and Campus Development faculty members of DLA. Adv. Sawhney persuaded students to show towards intellectual growth and engage with the Consumer Protection law as the same is coming to new would establish itself as a parallel regime with judiciary. Students and faculty members raised various queries which were responded by Adv. Sawhney.
